As Co-Founder of Brian Fluid, I have focused on brand & creative direction by taking part in conceptualizing & illustrating our animated brand reveal, online portfolio, and studio projects.

As Lead Motion Designer, I have taken multiple tasks on the client facing and creative sides establishing the company's graphic style, aimed at generating viral content across all social platforms.

Designed and animated trailer title cards for the internationally famous animes, Sword Art Online, Assassin's Pride, and Epithet Erased to be streamed by Crunchyroll / VRV streaming websites.

Creative Director for Philm's multi-award winning music video. I delegated tasks to the animation team, designed characters, 3D environments, and characters set around a surreal storyline. As of 2021, our film won 3 Top Film Awards and played in over a dozen film festivals across the globe.
